

Creativity , courage and friendship

Music

Music is an area that allows creativity to flow as the children are given the time and encouragement to explore the music curriculum as they progress through the school. Courage is often needed to share ideas and perform in front of others. Music also supports the development of strong friendships as children support each other when working collaboratively and rely on each other to ensure they are successful in what they produce.

