All children thoroughly enjoyed a cricket coach visit on Wednesday, from the Chance to Shine programme.

FRETENHAM FRIENDS FAVOURS

Are you able to offer your time? One hour for £10 to fundraise for the school!

Are you a knitter?
or do you know
how to juggle
maybe you are a talented singer?

SHOW OFF YOUR TALENT OR KNOWLEDGE!

Email or message frettenham freinds to let us know what you can offer! The list will be out in March for people to take up the offer! Email frettenhampta@gmail.com or speak to Melissa flick or Kelly for more info

The background of the flyer is decorated with various Easter eggs in shades of blue, gold, and white, some with patterns like stripes and polka dots. There are also scattered pieces of gold confetti. A large, stylized gold egg is positioned in the upper right corner.

FRETtenham FRIENDS EASTER DISCO!

Purchase the ticket from Melissa Flick and Kelly for £5 to help fundraise for the school

Wednesday 30th March 5.30pm-7pm

Frettenham Village Hall

We will look forward to seeing you all there!

There will be a Frettenham Friends meeting on Thursday 17th March after morning drop-off at Flick Hindley's house (on the corner of School Road and Mill Road). Come for a cuppa and to get involved with helping shape and run events for our school community. All parents are really welcome (along with any preschoolers that need to come too) and we would love to see you there.

Congratulations to Frettenham Primary School for helping to get an entry into the World Record Book, for our Royal Mail stamp designing competition!
