Hainford Newsletter

Today we complete the first half-term of this academic year and it has certainly felt to be one of the strangest that I have ever experienced. The recent online Harvest festival was a reminder of the ‘new normal’ and it was a great shame that we were not able to celebrate Harvest with parents, carers and members of the wider community. Thank you to everyone for their continued support, kindness and good humour during these challenging times. We wish you all a restful half-term break and look forward to seeing you all on Monday 2nd November.

Staffing

To ensure consistency and continuity for class 1 children after a long period of disruption, Miss Redgrave will be teaching class 1 for the remainder of this academic year.

Miss Cunningham, who was due to return, will be leading on phonics and phonics interventions in response to school closures across the Nebula group of schools. She will be working at Hainford school during the first week back after half-term.

Online Assertive Mentoring / Parents’ Evening

Slots are now available for Tuesday 3rd and Wednesday 4th for 5 – 10 minute on-line meetings with your child’s class teacher. Please contact the office to arrange an appointment.

Harvest

Thank you to everyone for their generous donations of food. These have already been taken by Reverend Chris Englesen to St Martins Housing Trust and are being put to good use.
