I hope you all had a lovely Easter break and it is lovely to see how enthusiastic the children have come back and settled in. This half term is quite a short one and we have got a lot of activities booked so the calendar is already looking pretty full.

With the warmer weather, just a reminder about ensuring your child has a sun hat and when sunny enough sun cream. We ask that sun cream is put on before school, so it does not need to be applied at school. Not only does this take up the children's break time, but it nearly always ends up in a sticky mess. It also avoids the sharing of sun creams as we do have some children with allergies to some ingredients.
