Books for Schools campaign

Please help us collect as many Books for Schools tokens as possible!

The power of reading at an early age has long been recognised as a way to positively shape children's future success.

The brand new Books for Schools campaign aims to help children access stories that will inspire and help them grow.

The new campaign involves primary and infant schools collecting tokens in exchange for free books from a list of 700 titles.

For every 1,000 tokens collected, your school will win £100 worth of free books. The four schools with the most tokens-per-student at the end of the campaign will win a bonus £2,500 worth of books.

You can start collecting tokens from Monday, October 1, until the closing date on Saturday, December 8. Tokens will be printed every day in the Eastern Daily Press and Norwich Evening News and each week in the weekly publications.

There will be one token a day but watch for bonus tokens and two tokens every Saturday (one token a week plus bonus tokens in the weekly publications).

Tokens will be printed in the following papers:

- Eastern Daily Press
- Norwich Evening News
- Great Yarmouth Mercury
- The Lowestoft Journal
- Beccles & Bungay Journal
- Dereham Times
- Fakenham & Wells Times
- North Norfolk News

Harvest Festival

Parking and moving around School Road

It is clear you need your wits about you when using the road outside school at dropping off and picking up times. This is true whether as a driver or pedestrian. I appreciate it is difficult to park close to the school and I know some people feel the taxis don't help the situation either. However, please be considerate of driveways, footpaths and at junctions so visibility is not reduced further. Unfortunately, I recently had a letter from a resident who had to brake sharply after a child opened the roadside door of a parked vehicle to exit. He beeped his horn to let the parent know the child was exiting into the road unsupervised. His action was met with what he described as "foul mouthed obscenities". I appreciate these busy times of the day can be stressful, but even if whoever it was felt the driver had done something wrong, I would hope they could respond in a tolerant way, setting an example of how they would want their child to respond in confrontational situations within school.

Readers

If there is anyone who would like to come in to school to listen to the children read, this would be really helpful. You would need to complete a few safeguarding forms and have a DBS certificate applied for, by the school. If you are able to help, please come and see me to discuss it further.

Thank you.
