Message from the Friends

To raise some money for new books for the library, your child can take part in our second reading challenge - a sponsored February read-a-thon.

Ask friendly grandparents, neighbours, friends or colleagues to sponsor them to read a book. The twist is that the adult gets to choose the book that the child needs to read (or have read to them if they're not able to read yet)....

So, if you've always wanted to share Daddy pig saves the day, This Granny is the best Granny or even War and Peace, now is your chance.

Once your child has read the book or books, collect money and either hand it into the office or make a transfer into the Friends bank account.

And don't forget, the extreme reading challenge - pictures in after half-term!

Challenge 2 - Favourite books

Ask a parent, carer, friend or grandparent for their favourite childhood book and ask them to sponsor you to read it.

It could be anything from 10p for a Peppa Pig classic to £10 for War and Peace. Paper sponsorship forms will come home in bags.

All proceeds will go to buying new library books.

Note for adults: Please encourage your child to read a book that you (the adult) have chosen. The book could be a favourite from your own childhood, it could be a story you feel is really important, it could be a book you know they will love, or something you hope will really make your child laugh, or something to really make them think...
