I have loved seeing the children so enthusiastic with their Pokemon cards at break and lunchtimes. However, we have started to have a few incidents which have meant children have been getting upset and staff have been dealing with the fallout. I appreciate these cards can be quite valuable, but any cards children bring in are their responsibility to look after. Please ensure if your child has cards that they are kept safe preferably in a folder or named container and that they know what they are able to do with swaps and gifting cards to others.
