Hopefully, you got the information about our Readathon starting this week. Please take time to discuss what your child would like to do and support them with their reading and hopefully we can buy a really good range of new books for the library. If every child raises enough for just one book then we would have about 70 news books.

Also we have our book fair next week. You will be able to view and buy books after school between Tuesday and Friday. The children will have time to view the books on Tuesday. If your child takes a particular liking to a book, we will send home a slip with the details on and you are welcome to send in the money with them so they can buy it the next day if that is easier.

Friends meeting summary in photographs (minutes attached)

Lisa enjoys her wing walk!

Thank you to everyone who kindly sponsored my wing walk, which took place on Thursday 8th August, to raise funds for the Friends of Frettenham Primary School. It was truly exhilarating and a once in a lifetime experience.

Frettenham Parent Friends Meeting Coffee Morning and Welcome Event

Speech Bubble Coffee Morning

Approximately thirteen people attended the event, and all commented around the room with post stick notes whilst having cappuccino and biscuits. Please find attached the speech bubbles with brilliant ideas for the year for us to do which we are very excited about! Thank you Gyles and Emma for attending.

During the event we discussed the following:

- Change of name for the meeting so it is less formal and more welcoming "Parent Friends Coffee Morning" for example was the suggestion.
- Next coffee morning to combine fundraising and the coffee morning with selling cakes for 50p or £1.00.
- We discussed doing this get together monthly to update, plan and organise but also just to get together and share ideas, experiences; to have a sense of community and most importantly to show support to one another.
- One person suggested putting up posters at 8:45am on the actual morning of the Friends Coffee Morning to tempt in random passing parents and increase attendance (and revenue from cake sales!)
- From the speech bubbles for the "Preferred times and days" a majority of the people's preferred times were 8.45 am after drop off.
- From the speech bubbles for the children's events this term; we discussed the following:

Christmas party disco
Book Signing
Pudsey visit to class one
Climbing wall

- From the speech bubbles for the fundraising ideas we discussed the following:

Colourage – powdered paint throwing run (Emma is this how to spell it?)
Sponsored walk
Children's designed Christmas cards
Pumpkin carving competition
Christmas jumper day
Non-school uniform day
Quiz and chips
Cake sales
Book sales
Quiz night
British sign language song with the children and parents and staff
Wine and Gin tasting evening

See attached photo for the many other ideas suggested.

- Next meeting I propose we could do the cake sale combined with the coffee morning with the focus of planning and organising the main preferred events and fundraising ideas suggested above.
- We also discussed possible marketing about how to attract parents to come. A possible survey to be handed out. Flick and I will discuss this further.
- Next meeting to be in October at 8.45am. Specific date to be arranged nearer the time.
